Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Hospitality has a special place in the life of God's people. He always rewards kindness done to him. The welcome we give to him should be characterised by listening in faith. 'for some have entertained angels unaware'. There is a need to make space in our lives for listening to the Word, a time in each day for Scripture reading.

Feast Days this week: St Mary Magdalene – Friday 22nd July St Mary Magdalene stood at the foot of the cross of Jesus: with two other women she discovered the empty tomb; she was granted an appearance of the Risen Lord early the same day, from which incident she has been described as 'the apostle to the apostles. The gospels give no warrant for identifying her with the 'woman who was a sinner' who anointed Christ's feet (Lk 7:37) or with Mary the sister of Martha who also anointed him (Jn 12:3).

St Bridget of Sweden- Saturday 23rd July St Bridget was born in Sweden in 1303. She brought up eight children, and after the death of her husband dedicated herself to an ascetical life. Later she founded the Bridgettine Order and lived in Rome. She wrote many works about her mystical experiences. She died in Rome in 1373. She was declared Patron of Europe in 2000.

Prayer to St Bridget of Sweden

Bridget, you were a woman of peace.
 You brought harmony where there was conflict.
 You brought light into darkness.
 You brought hope to the downcast.
 May the mantle of your peace cover those who are troubled or anxious, and may peace be firmly rooted in our hearts and our world.
 Inspire us to act justly and to reverence all God has made.
 Bridget, you were a voice for the wounded and weary.
 Strengthen what is weak within us.
 Calm us into a stillness that heals and listens.
 May we grow each day into greater wholeness in mind, body and spirit. Amen.

This week's Bulletin is sponsored in memory of Peter Jones, Leitrim.

A Summer Blessing

May God walk with you
this Summer
in whatever you do
wherever you go.

Walking with God means....
walking with honesty
and with courage,
walking with love and respect
and concern for the feelings of others.

May you talk to God this Summer
and every day and
in every situation.

Talking to god means....
praying words of praise
for the beauty of creation,
saying prayers of thanks
for friends and good times,
asking God's help
in all your decisions,
expressing sorrow
when you have failed.

And may you talk with God
every day. Amen.

Seeing your life through the lens of the Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

1. Today's gospel brings us right to the heart of what Christian life involves: love of God and love of neighbour. Jesus tells us that having life both now and in the future is the fruit of living in a spirit of love. How have you experienced love given and received as a source of life and vitality
2. With media today we are brought face to face with suffering, poverty and hunger so vast that it can engender a feeling of helplessness and hopelessness. The parable challenges us about how we react when we come face to face with a person in need. We may sometimes try to avoid getting involved. Recall when you overcame this reaction and reached out to help. What did that do for you, and for the other person?
3. In The Joy of the Gospel Pope Francis comments that it is a temptation for some religious people to claim they are too busy to get involved with the poor and says 'none of us can think we are exempt from concern for the poor and for social justice'. Who are the people whose commitment to these causes inspire you.
