The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
Since the Fourteenth Century the Church of the West has celebrated this feast in every place she is established. It commemorates the institution of the Body and Blood of the Lord in the Eucharistic and so it is closely linked with Holy Thursday. It was felt that other elements of the Easter Triduum tended to obscure the aspect of the Eucharist. Therefore it was considered that a special day outside of the Easter season in which the focus on this aspect would be useful. And so today's feast.

Seeing your life through the lens of the Gospel:

1. Jesus welcomes the crowd, taught them, and cured those in need of healing. Bring to mind the ways in which the story of Jesus and his message have taught you enlightenment, and healing.
2. Today we are invited to walk in the footsteps of Jesus by welcoming people affected by Covid, displaced by war, or struggling to make ends meet. Perhaps in the face of these difficulties you feel helpless. So did the disciples and yet Jesus said to them 'you give them something to eat'. They thought that what they had was insufficient but Jesus used the little they had to feed the crowd. Have you ever found that when you give the little you have to a situation, the results were beyond your expectations?
3. The miracle is symbolic of the abundance of blessings coming from God through Jesus. How has your faith in Jesus been a source of nourishment to you? What blessings have you received through your faith?

A short Act of Consecration to the Sacred Heart

Sacred Heart of Jesus, filled with infinite love,
broken by my ingratitude

pierced by my sins,
yet loving me still,
accept the consecration
which I make to you,
of all that I am and all that I have.

Take every faculty of my soul
and body,
and draw me day by day,
nearer and nearer to your sacred side:

There, as I can hear the lesson,
teach me your blessed ways.
Amen.
