Third Sunday of Easter
The resurrection of the Lord dominates our celebration in these days of Eastertide. Today's liturgy provides an example of the transforming power of the resurrection. Peter's threefold confession of faith reverses his threefold denial of Jesus during the passion. Jesus' forgiveness of his disciples here is intended to assure disciples of every age of his forgiveness.

First Holy Communion: congratulations to the children of Killyhommon and St Patrick's primary schools who received the Sacrament of First Holy Communion yesterday. We pray that they will come to a deep understanding and appreciation of the gift of the Eucharist in their lives. May their parents and teachers be supported and encouraged as they seek to pass on the faith to these boys and girls.

Seeing your life through the lens of the Gospel:

John 21: 1-19

1. The disciples spent a fruitless night fishing and catching nothing. Things change dramatically when Jesus appears and invites them to try again. Remember those who came to you and encouraged you to try again when you felt discouraged. Perhaps on some of these occasions the results were beyond your expectations.
2. Some people view the synodal process proposed by Pope Francis as a futile exercise, and others see it as an opportunity for renewal and growth. What have you seen or heard that encourages you to engage in the process?
3. The story can serve as a reminder that sometimes we are wasting our time if we try to work on our own without the Lord's help. When have you found that your life was more fruitful when you acknowledged that you needed God's help and you spoke to God about your need?
4. Peter is given the chance to be fully reconciled with his Master after his denial during the Passion. Remember those who have given you an opportunity for reconciliation after you had hurt them or let them down. What was it like for you to be given this chance? To whom have you offered the possibility of reconciliation?
