Thirty - Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we approach the end of the Liturgical Year our celebrations contain many references to the end of time. Our attention is directed towards what has yet to be. The Letter to the Hebrews boldly states that Jesus the Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever. Whatever the future brings we can be confident that God who did not desert us in the past will remain faithful.

Seeing your life through the Lens of the Gospel:

Luke 20: 27-38 (shorter form 20:27, 34-38)

1. A common tactic in an argument is to make fun of the position of another. Then one does not have to take seriously the view being expressed. This is what the Sadducees were doing with the trick question they put to Jesus. Have you ever found yourself doing this? Have you experienced others doing it with you? What were the effects of such an attitude? Did it build up or damage a relationship?

2. Jesus used the phrase 'Children of the resurrection' to describe his followers because we believe in something that cannot be proven. Life can sometimes present us with that kind of a challenge – an invitation to believe in things we cannot prove: another person, a cause, the value of a course of action, etc. What has been your experience of believing and acting on this kind of faith?

3. At the heart of our Christian faith is belief that death is not the end. We believe that the relationship we have with God, and that starts in this life, survives death and continues after death. We call this resurrection. In this month of November we recall those we have loved and have died. How has belief in the resurrection helped you in thinking about those you have loved and who are no longer with you?

John Byrne OSA

Lord God,
Whose days are without end and whose mercies beyond counting, Keep us mindful that life is short and the hour of death unknown.
Let your Spirit guide our days on earth
in the ways of holiness and justice,
that we may serve you in union
with the whole Church,
sure in faith, strong in hope,
perfect in love.
And when our earthly journey
is ended,
lead us rejoicing into your kingdom,
Where you live for ever and ever. Amen
