The Baptism of Lord

The Baptism of the Lord. Jesus is anointed with the Spirit and his power. He is proclaimed Messiah. He now goes about doing good, working the signs that make him known as the Servant of God. He is the one who brings good news to the poor and tells of salvation. Through our Baptism each one of us is ordered to the life of Christ - Priest, Prophet and King - and the Father looks on us with favour.

Prayer for the Baptism of the Lord

Eternal Father, who at the baptism of Jesus revealed Him to be Your Son, anointing Him with the Holy Spirit:

grant that we may be faithful to our call as Children of God, listening to you, guided by Your Spirit,

to fulfil our unique and definite purpose. Amen

Baptism is the way that we are welcomed into the Church. Through baptism our sins are forgiven and we are committed to God and to trying to live our lives the way that God wants us to, calls us to. It is not easy, but in the same way that the Holy Spirit came to Jesus when He was baptised, we are baptised with water and the Holy Spirit. The Spirit is there to help us when we find things difficult and to guide us to make the right choices.

Envelope Collection: week ending 4th January Weekly Offerings £2570.00 and €30.40. Thank you for your generous support.

St Patrick's Missionary Society: wishes to express its gratitude to all the priests and people of the Diocese of Clogher for the welcome and generous response they received for the Mission Awareness Programme that they carried out in the Diocese during 2025.

The Lord was Baptised, not to be cleansed Himself, but to cleanse the waters, so that those waters, cleansed by the flesh of Christ which knew no sin, might have the power of Baptism.

-St. Ambrose of Milan

St. Macartan's Cathedral – Nationwide Broadcast. We were very fortunate that the RTE Flagship programme Nationwide featured St. Macartan's Cathedral during 2025. It coincided with Heritage Week. The wonderful craftspeople who have been working on our beautiful Cathedral were featured and it gave us an in-depth insight into the talent, craft and expertise that is helping restore our Mother Church of the Diocese. A link to this programme is now available for viewing on www.clogherdiocese.ie/ourcathedralourlegacy.

Lourdes Pilgrimage 2024: Compensation Claim - The Diocesan Lourdes Committee is working with the Consumer Council to pursue compensation for the delay experienced on the return journey of the 2024 pilgrimage. To do this, authorisation is required from each pilgrim to be returned by the end of January 2026. More information at www.clogherdiocese.ie/lourdes2024

Thought for Today

Beginning here we glimpse the Three-in-one; the river runs, the clouds are torn apart, the Father speaks, the Spirit and the Son reveal to us the single loving heart that beats behind the being of all things and calls and keeps and kindles us to light. The dove descends, the Spirit soars and sings 'You are beloved, You are my delight!' In that swift light and life, as water spills and streams around the Man like quickening rain, the voice that made the universe reveals the God in Man who makes it new again. He calls us too, to step into that river, to die and rise and live and love forever.

Reflections

It would be useful for us today to reflect on the meaning of our own baptism and how it relates with that of Jesus.

We often hear a very simplistic description of the effects of the Sacrament of Baptism as 'taking away original sin and making us children of God'. Many, especially those baptised as infants, may see it as a one-off ceremony, imposed on them by parents to bind them to a way of life in which they have no further say. However, if one truly understands the full meaning of our baptism, this is unlikely to happen.

Baptism is not, as is true of all the sacraments, an isolated ritual. It takes place in the context of our whole life. Whether we are baptised as children or as adults, what primarily is happening is that we become incorporated, 'embodied', into the Christian community.

We become – not passively, but actively – members of the Body of Christ. It can never be something imposed on us against our will. That is why, for adults, there is now a long process of initiation leading up to Baptism and, hopefully a further process of community support after the Baptism has taken place.

We are called to be living witnesses of the Gospel, to be the salt of the earth, to be a city on a hill, a candle radiating light in the surrounding darkness. We are called, in short, to be united with the others in our Christian community in the building up of God's Kingdom.

Our baptism is not simply some past event recorded in some dusty parish register. It is a living reality which is to be constantly deepened and enriched.
