Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus is chosen by the Spirit to be Lamb and Servant; Paul is chosen to be an apostle. Each of us in Baptism is chosen. We are chosen to live a life of holiness, to share in God's life, a life for us of praise and worship, of witness and apostolicity.

Catholic Schools Week 2026 – “Normal Lives, Called to Holiness”

Catholic Schools runs from 18th to 24th January with the theme, “Normal Lives, Called to Holiness”. Inspired by Pope Francis' reflection on Blessed Carlo Acutis, the 2026 theme invites pupils, teachers, families, and parishes to explore the call to holiness as something both universal and accessible. Holiness is not for a few, but for all; not reserved for professionals or mystics, but for every student, teacher, parent, (and grandparent!), aunt or uncle living each day in friendship with Jesus Christ.

St. Patrick's PS: will be celebrating Catholic Schools Week and invite you to attend Mass on Thursday 22nd January at 10am in St. Patrick's Church (provided there is no funeral) to celebrate our Grandparents/Special Adult(s) in our lives. Everyone welcome!

Thought for Today: John 'Saw Jesus Coming Toward Him.' – Jesus is always coming toward us, too. Why? Because he loves us. He never imposes himself. He doesn't burst through the door and force us to accept him or even acknowledge him. But he does remain close, hoping we will catch a glimpse of his love and, in that instant, recognise that he is everything our hearts long for. What will happen if we open the door of our life, of our heart, to Christ? He will call us to abandon the tight confines of our egotism, greed, lust, envy, and selfishness. He will open undreamed-of horizons and give a rich, new dimension to our poor, fleeting days on this earth.

Reflections

John also declared, 'I saw the Spirit coming down on him from heaven like a dove and resting on him'. John's words in today's Gospel form a declaration of trust. His words are led from the Spirit: he allowed the Spirit to guide him and this led to greater trust in Jesus.

Whilst we may not be approached by Jesus and be asked to baptise him in the local river, there are many prompts, many signs, through which we can begin to listen the Holy Spirit. First and foremost are the Sacraments and Scripture. By our own baptism we have been signed by the Holy Spirit, just as Jesus was at the Jordan. And, through the Eucharist, we meet Jesus in a special and intimate way. In Scripture we are reminded of Jesus's ministry, his birth, work, crucifixion and death, and his resurrection from the dead, and we are invited to live in synergy with this life, to emulate Christ through the gifts of the Spirit.

This invitation is no less outlandish, no less surprising, than what John experienced. But faith is an unexpected journey of surprise and, through it, we become the fullest people that we were designed to be.

At the heart of our journey is the Spirit, and his constant invitation to our hearts. We know where to begin. But are we open, as was John, to listening to him in our lives? Are we open to spending the time in prayer epriests.com
